

The Daily Courant.

Friday, May 14. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 18.

Naples, April 24.

A Tartan belonging to the Prince de Montefarchio, fitted out for a Privateer, has taken a Bark of Messina having on board 7 Persons of Quality bound for France, and brought them higher Prisoners. On Wednesday last Te Deum was solemnly sung here in the Church of the Carmelites, in Presence of the Viceroy and of all the Nobility, and Salvoes were given by all the Artillery for the good News brought by an Express from Milan that the Enemy's Enterprize against Scotland is come to nothing. 'Tis said the Imperial Court has written to Count Thaur, to continue to execute the Office of Viceroy: And that Cardinal Grimani is to stay at Rome. His Excellency has sent to Apulia some Horse and Foot to guard the Coasts, because the French grow strong in Sicily; and he has sent away 9 large Barks, laden with Ammunition for Reggio and other Places of Calabria.

From the Leid. and Amst. Gaz. dated May 18.

Rome, April 28. The 23d Instant the Pope held a Congregation of Cardinals, to consider anew what was proper to be done by this Court on account of the Sequestration of the Revenues of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Naples and the Milaneze belonging to Subjects of the Ecclesiastical State: And it was resolv'd, that gentle Methods should be us'd, to oblige the House of Austria to take off that Sequestration. Pursuant to this Resolution, the Pope has already nominated Signior Davia to go to Milan in the Quality of Legate a Latere, to compliment the new Queen of Spain: He is come to Court to receive his Instructions; and 'tis said he will be made a Cardinal before he reaches Milan. This Week the Pope has been at the Churches of St. John de Latran, St. Peter, and St. Mary Major, to gain the plenary Indulgence mention'd in our former: And on this Occasion the whole City flock'd to the pulick Devotions. Cardinal Grimani having receiv'd Letters by a Courier from Vienna, had a long Audience of his Holiness Yesterday. The Pope's Gallies are sail'd from Civita Vecchia for the Island of Malta with Succours. Yesterday the Tribunal of the holy Office perform'd the Ceremony of delivering over to the secular Government, a Criminal for stealing the Pix with several Hosties in it out of the Church of St. Mary in Trastevere. There was a great Crowd of People to see the Ceremony, which was perform'd in the Square of St. Peter; and this Morning the Malefactor was hang'd in the Square before the Church where the Sacrilege was committed. The Pope has given a private Audience to the Envoy Extraordinary of Portugal, who does not yet appear in Publick.

From the Leiden Gazette &c dated May 18.

Florence, April 28. The 23d Instant 4 Gallies of the Duke of Tursis arriv'd at Leghorne; and Yesterday 2 of them sail'd for Civita Vecchia, there to take on board new Succours of Troops, Money, and Ammunition, which the Duke d' Uzeda Ambassador of King Philip at Rome has sent thither for Porto-Ercole and Porto-Longone. The other 2 are to sail with the 4 Gallies of Naples, to Messina. The Garrison of Porto-Ercole have made a vigorous Salley upon the Imperialists before that Place, and dislodg'd them from several Posts, killing some and taking 40 Prisoners. The Privateers of Zealand have taken and sent into Leghorne a French Ship bound from Smirna for Marseilles, richly laden; and a Bark laden with Corn. A Vessel is arriv'd at Leghorne from Malta in 6 Days, being sent by the great Master to take in a Lading of Ammunition.

From the Leid. Gazette &c dated May 18.

Venice, May 4. The 29th of last Month Signior Mocenigo Provéditeur-general of the Sea-Service, sail'd for the Morea with the new Convoy appointed for those Parts: But has been oblig'd by contrary Winds to come to an Anchor on the Coast of Ithria. The Chevalier Nani being excus'd from going to Constantinople, to reside there in Quality of Ambassador from this Republick, the Senate will make a new Election to Morrow of a Person to relieve the Chevalier Ascanio Giustiniani, who makes pressing Instances to be recall'd. Prince Hercolani, the Emperour's Ambassador, is gone from hence for Verona to meet the new Queen of Spain, having receiv'd Advice that she is set out from Vienna. The new Levies made by the Duke of Modena, are to be Garrison'd 'tis believ'd, in Mirandola, the Investiture of which 'tis said the Emperour has given to that Duke's second Son: 'Tis also reported, that the Cannon of Modena and Reggio other Places of that Duke's Dominions, which the French remov'd to Cremona, will be restor'd.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 19.

Troppau, May 4. We have receiv'd from all Quarters a Confirmation of the Defeat of the Van-guard of the Swedish Army by the Muscovites. An Express from the Czar is gone to the Emperour with an Account of the Action. 'Tis rumour'd the Swedes have receiv'd another Blow; but of that we must wait for certain Advice. The Swedes continue determin'd however to pursue their march into Muscovy, whatever it cost them.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 18.

Amsterdam, May 18. The Letters from Poland give a lamentable Account of the Misery to which that Kingdom is reduc'd. The King of Sweden is extremely animated against the Muscovites; but 'tis thought he will forbear to penetrate further into a Country that is laid quite desolate; and in which his Army, which has already suffer'd by Want of Forrage and Provisions, cannot find Subsistence. It appears, that King Stanislaus might have acquir'd a greater Number of Creatures and Adherents, had he been less hasty in disposing of vacant Offices; which multiplied Malecontents, and damp'd the Hopes of the Party that is against him. The Army of the Crown is 60000 Men strong, without reckoning the Cossacks, who hold themselves ready to obey the Great General's Orders.

From the Amst. Courant &c dated May 19.

Neuchâtel, May 8. The Marquis de Puissieux having sent to the Canton of Zurich a Copy of the Declaration of the King his Master touching the Neutrality agreed for this Principality, the Protestant Cantons have examin'd and found it intirely consonant to the Treaty drawn up at Arau: Whereupon the 2500 Men which that Canton had in this Country being recall'd, are actually on the march home. The Count de Metternich is likewise going to disband the Regiment of Petit Pierre; so that there will be no Soldiers left in our Principality. And the Intendant of Burgundy having on the 30th past taken off the Prohibition of Commerce between France and this Country, the Tranquillity of these Parts is re-establish'd.
